It's against the law for you to have your dog off leash, no matter how well-behaved you think your dog is. You could face fines for breaking this law.

3. Protect Your Dog

Your dog could quickly become the cause or the victim of a dog fight, they could become startled and run into the street or go exploring and get lost. Dog leash laws protect both the dog and the dog owner from unexpected accidents.

Think SQUIRREL! You might have never had a problem before but you can not predict what you might come across during an outing with your dog.

4. Set a Good Example

As good pet owners we should set a good example and keep our dogs on leash. People think it's okay to let their dogs off leash because they see other people doing it too, but inappropriately trained dogs running loose aren't good for anyone.

5. Safety / Liability

You are liable for your dog's actions. Beyond your dog possibly hurting someone or another pet, what if your off-leash dog approaches a child with a life threatening dog allergy? You could face a lawsuit, A court may feel letting your dog off leash shows a reckless lack of concern for those around you. A leash provides emergency control over your pet.
