

Pet of the Week: Emmett!

It's National Pet Day, and our Pet of the Week is Emmett! As soon as Emmett arrived as a stray at OC Animal Care back in October, we learned quickly that he absolutely LOVES toys! This handsome 3-year-old Pit Bull loves to take his favorite stuffed animal out on walks, to the play yard, to the vet for checkups... really anywhere he goes! Emmett loves to play, and his happy, energetic personality really shines through when he rolls around on the grass with his toys! Emmett is a silly boy who loves to chase his tail, roll around on the grass, do zoomies around the play yard, and, of course, hang out with his human friends for lots and lots of love. Emmett is such a joyful pup and has loved making friends with every staff member and volunteer here at the shelter. This happy boy is ready to find his furr-ever family and play with them and his stuffed animals to his heart's content! Emmett is looking for an adult-only home where he will be the only pet.
