

PET OF THE WEEK

ZERO

ANIMAL ID#: A1904599

Zero has turned over a new leaf! This once shy and nervous boy now walks with more confidence, plays like a happy dog, and looks forward to play dates with his doggy friends!

Zero came from a hoarding home where he and his littermates were not well taken care of. They have all since learned to walk on-leash, become social and affectionate, and trust people! While his siblings have all been adopted, Zero is still holding onto that hope and spirit that he'll soon find his forever family.

With your help, love, and encouragement, we know Zero (A1904599) can become the loving and loyal companion he's meant to be. Give him a chance and foster-to-adopt him today!
